

Temple Juett

Temple Juett is the General Counsel of the Kentucky League of Cities, a non-profit, membership organization of 381 cities within the Commonwealth of Kentucky. As general counsel, he serves as a member of the executive management team and is the Chief Legal Officer for the corporation and its 8 affiliated companies which carry out the duties related to its insurance, finance and citizen engagement programs. He is also a registered lobbyist and serves as the Director of the KLC Legislative and Policy Development Program which represents the interests of city government in Frankfort. Prior to joining KLC in 1999, he worked for 11 years as a practicing attorney in Lexington, Kentucky for Wyatt, Tarrant and Combs and Sturgill, Turner, Barker and Moloney.