HOST CITY'S WELCOME

Dear KLC Members,
Welcome to Covington!

On behalf of the Covington Board of Commissioners and its citizens, I take great pleasure in welcoming you to our extraordinary city. Covington is honored to host the 2017 Kentucky League of Cities (KLC) Conference & Expo.

Covington is a city on the move. Take a look around at our neighborhoods and you'll see that our historic buildings and long-vacant storefronts are now bustling with customers and inventory.

Many exciting residential and commercial developments are either under construction or planned throughout our city, and employers are once again deciding to move their operations to Covington where they can take advantage of our city's unique charm and rich character.

Named in Vogue magazine as "One of the Five Industrial Cities Making America's Rust Belt Shine Again," Covington is creating a great environment for startups, entrepreneurs and established businesses to prosper. Innovation and creativity thrive here, so much that there's even a street named "Innovation Alley."

Proud of its small-city charm and big-city benefits, Covington is home to 19 distinct neighborhoods and 18 national historic districts. The city has numerous businesses, organizations and neighborhood groups working towards its betterment and beautification.

In 2017, Renaissance Covington, our Main Street program, earned the prestigious 2017 Great American Main Street Award thanks to its creativity and collaborative efforts in revitalizing the city's downtown.

Covington is attracting worldwide companies like CTI Clinical Trial and Consulting Services due to its numerous amenities, walkability and overall lifestyle. Additionally, Covington is home to the 2013 National Cancer Institute "Bridge Award" recipient Bexion Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a premier biotech company focused on the development and commercialization of innovative cures for cancer.

While visiting Covington, we invite you to take a look around and experience our revitalization and sense of community firsthand. Whether it's stopping by our scenic riverfront, visiting Covington's historic Ritte's Corner in Latonia, or enjoying the thriving businesses and restaurants in Mainstrasse, we hope that you will enjoy our great city.

Sincerely,

Joseph U. Meyer
Mayor, City of Covington

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

WELCOME!

On behalf of the KLC officers, Board members and staff, WELCOME to the 2017 Kentucky League of Cities Conference & Expo. We are gathered for the 88th year and are more than a little pleased you have joined us for our big event. By now, you have probably seen and heard about our conference theme “Engage. Evolve. Emerge.” The conference program is jam-packed with useful information, learning opportunities, about a zillion ways to have fun and even a first-time ever community service project. The agenda has something for everybody, and we’re pleased and proud to welcome you. We hope you ENGAGE in the events and activities, EVOLVE into a better public servant in the process, and EMERGE from the conference better, smarter, reenergized and ready to make some great things happen in your home towns.

This year we have added something really special to the conference agenda. We hope you’ll join us for our special community service event first thing Thursday morning when we will work together to help “Send Hunger Packing” in Kentucky. This first-ever conference community service event will not only be a lot of fun, it will provide many Kentuckians, a lot of whom live in our cities and a lot of whom are children, with a little boost and maybe even a hand-up. We have partnered with Agriculture Commissioner Ryan Quarles to put together food packages to be provided to those whose day-to-day ability to eat a decent meal is anything but a certainty. Come join us and have some fun doing something important.

On a personal note, it has been a singular pleasure and honor to serve as your president this past year. I have been able to travel to many Kentucky cities and see the great work you are doing. I can’t help but be impressed with the dedication and accomplishments that are so prevalent throughout the state with so many good people working so hard to make their cities and towns shine. I appreciate the hospitality, support and kind words offered up as I traveled around the Commonwealth and will forever be grateful for the experience. Thank you.

The officers and staff will be wandering the halls of the conference making it all happen. Please feel free to stop us and say “hi” so we can get to know you and your home town better. Remember, YOU are KLC.

Sincerely,

Claude Christensen
 President, Kentucky League of Cities
 Mayor of Sadieville

DIRECTOR'S WELCOME

Dear KLC Members:

Thanks for attending the 2017 KLC Conference & Expo. These are interesting times for city officials, and I'm always inspired at how you and your cities are rising to meet the challenges. There's a lot of inspiration among you.

The theme for the conference this year is "Engage. Evolve. Emerge." Our host city of Covington is a perfect location. Northern Kentucky cities are making small shifts as well as big, bold changes to meet the needs of current and future residents.

We see the conference as a time to celebrate, and there's a lot to celebrate this year. We will recognize many of you for your training accomplishments and showcase a number of your projects in panels and workshops. KLC's signature insurance programs continue to grow and thrive, and our finance programs have expanded dramatically in the last year. The KLC community consulting program is serving more cities than ever, and the member legal services program is the busiest it's ever been. And we continue to take a stand on behalf of cities with our legislative advocacy program - making your voice one of the strongest voices in Frankfort. Our KLC staff loves working for you and is always interested in your feedback.

The conference is also a new year of sorts for KLC as we welcome some new officers and Board members. We're had a great year under the unwavering leadership of Sadieville Mayor and KLC President Claude Christensen. He's been actively and strategically involved in all aspects of our success. He, our other officers and Board of Directors are enthusiastic and engaged representatives for you.

Lastly, thank you to our host city of Covington and to all of Northern Kentucky for the hospitality you've already shown us. It's going to be a great Conference & Expo.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Steiner
Executive Director/CEO
Kentucky League of Cities

GENERAL INFORMATION

CITY OFFICIALS TRAINING CENTER AWARD PROGRAM

The City Officials Training Center (COTC) is a voluntary continuing education program administered by KLC. City officials can complete education levels by attending KLC events and by submitting outside training credit from other municipal training. There is no charge to enroll. If you attend a KLC training, your credit is tracked automatically.

- ◆ Level I - Achievement in City Governance: 29 Hours of Approved Courses, 1 Hour of Ethics
- ◆ Level II - Excellence in City Governance: Total of 58 Hours of Approved Courses, total of 2 Hours of Ethics
- ◆ Level III - Master of City Governance: Total of 87 Hours of Approved Courses, total of 3 Hours of Ethics
- ◆ Masters Maintenance: 14 Hours of Approved Courses Completed Annually, 1 Hour of Ethics

Every workshop, roundtable discussion, networking workshop, cracker barrel and general session during the KLC Conference & Expo is available for COTC credit on an hour-by-hour basis. Please make sure you are scanned before each event or you will not receive credit. Credits are valid for three years. If you have any questions about the COTC, please contact KLC Training Manager/Attorney Jessica Miller at jmiller@klc.org or 859-977-3761.

INTRODUCING THE NEW CERTIFIED MUNICIPAL OFFICER (CMO) TRAINING DESIGNATION!

The KLC training program continues to grow to meet the needs of the members we serve. This year we are excited to add a new designation to our City Officials Training Center (COTC) program. To obtain this new designation, individuals must complete 135 hours of training, which is 45 hours beyond the three levels of the COTC program. This program includes only training hours earned after October 3, 2017. No training hours obtained prior to that point will be counted towards the designation.

Only certain courses throughout the year will qualify for this program. Make sure to look for the CMO seal of approval at future KLC training events! This prestigious designation must include:

- ◆ 2 hours of Kentucky Open Meetings Law Training
- ◆ 2 hours of Kentucky Open Records Law Training
- ◆ 1 hour of Advanced Ethics Training

GENERAL INFORMATION

ASSOCIATION CREDIT

Several workshops qualify for credit from the Kentucky Board of Accountancy. Each course in the finance track qualifies for Continuing Professional Education (CPE) hours, and certificates will be provided. A total of 8 CPE hours are available if you attend all designated courses. If you wish to use another course for CPE hours, please email jmiller@klc.org and a certificate will be emailed to you.

The legal track of courses are pending approval for 9.25 hours of Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit from the Kentucky Bar Association.

The designated clerk track courses have been submitted for approval for 8.75 contact hours or approximately 2 CMC/MMC education points through IIMC.

CONFERENCE IDENTIFICATION

Please wear your name badge to all scheduled functions. KLC staff will be scanning badges as you enter meal functions, workshops and other scheduled events.

GRAND PRIZE DRAWING

Be sure to attend the General Session on Friday to see if you have won the grand prize! You must be present to win.

EMS AND SECURITY

In case of an emergency or need for security, please notify the registration desk or dial 911.

LOST AND FOUND

Please turn in any lost and found items to a KLC staff member located at the registration counter.

Speaker: Jason Roberts, Founder, Better Block Foundation
Location: Ballroom
- Jason Roberts is the organizer of the highly successful “Better Block Project,” a community-driven temporary takeover of blighted blocks. The onetime phenomenon in Southern Dallas has since grown into an international movement. In 2010, Jason organized a series of “Better Block Projects,” taking depressed blocks with vacant properties and converting them into temporary walkable districts with pop-up businesses, bike lanes, café seating and landscaping. The project was featured in The New York Times, Dwell magazine, and on National Public Radio (NPR).
- 10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Privacy Protections, KRS 61.931
Presenter: Darren Sammons, Staff Attorney, DLG
Track: CLE/Clerks
Location: Room 3
- In 2015, the Kentucky legislature enacted a series of laws mandating privacy protections be implemented by local governmental entities to ensure confidential consumer data is protected if a security breach should occur. Is your city compliant with these procedures? This session will provide an overview of the requirements and best-practice strategies for implementation.

WEDNESDAY - OCTOBER 4

10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Better Block Project Breakout

Presenter: Jason Roberts, Founder, Better Block Foundation
Track: General
Location: Rooms 1-2

Come and hear more real-world strategies on how to utilize innovative strategies to revitalize abandoned or blighted spaces. This session is all about thinking “outside of the box” to move your community forward.

10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Fighting Hunger in Kentucky

Presenter: Tamara Sandberg, Executive Director, Kentucky Food Bank Association
Track: Community Development
Location: Room 4

Did you know that each week 53,400 Kentuckians receive food from a food bank? The numbers are staggering, yet hunger is a problem that we often overlook in our communities. This session will provide an overview on how the Kentucky Food Bank Association works to try address this issue in our state. Come and learn how your city can become involved in the solution to combat hunger in the commonwealth!

10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Increasing Efficiency: The CovStat Analytics Program

Presenter: Dr. Todd Sink, Manager of Analytics and Intelligence, City of Covington
Track: Finance
Location: Room 5

The operation of a city creates a lot of data. Are you using your data to improve efficiencies in the operations of your various departments? This session will provide an overview of the unique way that the City of Covington has used statistics and data to help improve the operation of departments and plan for the future.

WEDNESDAY - OCTOBER 4

10:45 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. Creating Legally Compliant Personnel Policies
 Presenter: Andrea Shindlebower Main, KLC Personnel Services Specialist
 Track: Human Resources/CLE/Legal
 Location: Room 6

When was the last time your city reviewed its personnel policies? All cities should have personnel policies, and they should be reviewed annually to account for changes in state and federal law as well as to meet the needs of your city. This course provides a comprehensive overview for today's city officials who operate in an increasingly complex employment environment. In addition to reviewing the laws affecting personnel policy and procedures, participants will receive practical information about how to ensure compliance and avoid potential litigation.

10:45 a.m. - 11:45 a.m. KentuckyWired Update and Community Last Mile Considerations
 Panelist: Cory Camic, PMP, The Solarity Group
 Panelist: Phillip Brown, Executive Director, KCNA
 Track: Community Development
 Location: Room 7

This panel will discuss the future of broadband in Kentucky and provide an update on the Kentucky Wired project.

12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. Awards Luncheon
 Speaker: J.D. Chaney, KLC Deputy Executive Director
 Speaker: Jessica Miller, KLC Training Manager/Attorney
 Location: Ballroom

Join us in honoring the accomplishments of individuals and cities from across the state at the streamlined awards luncheon. We will recognize Elected City Official of the Year, City Employee of the Year, Enterprise Cities Awards and the City Official Training Center (COTC) Awards.

KLC Annual Business Meeting

Presiding: Mayor Claude Christensen, KLC President,
City of Sadieville

Location: Ballroom

Immediately following the conclusion of the KLC Annual Business Meeting, KLC leadership will be present at the photo station near registration for COTC award winners who wish to take a photo with their training awards. These photos will be sent with a press release to participants after the event.

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

Drones and Kentucky Cities

Presenter: Allan Cobb, Partner, Weiss and Cobb Law

Track: CLE

Location: Rooms 1-2

Have you had any drone issues in your city? Do you know what laws apply to the drones that might be buzzing around your community? This session will provide an overview of the various laws that apply to both private and commercial drone use. There will also be insight into what you should do if the FAA comes a-knockin' in your city.

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

2020 U.S. Census Local Update of Census Addresses (LUCA) Operation

Presenter: Analisa Rusnack, Geographer, U.S. Census Bureau

Track: Clerks

Location: Room 3

LUCA is the only opportunity offered to local governments to review and comment on the U.S. Census Bureau's residential address list for their jurisdiction prior to the 2020 Census. The Census Bureau relies on a complete and accurate address list to reach every living quarters and associated population for inclusion in the census. This data is essential for accurate counts in your community that is used for distribution of federal money for infrastructure, programs and services. The data can also be crucial for planning for the future of your city!

WEDNESDAY - OCTOBER 4

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

The Future of Renewable Energy in Kentucky

Presenter: Adam Edelen, Founder, Edelen Ventures

Track: General

Location: Room 4

This session will explore how some Kentucky industries are embracing renewable energy in order to create jobs, generate clean power and push local economies forward. This session will provide insight into how Kentucky has the potential to become an energy “power house” that goes beyond mere coal production and will feature details from a planned solar farm project in Pikeville, Kentucky.

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

Presenter: Derek Nesselrode, SPOC, Kentucky State Police

Presenter: Ehrin Ehlert, Region IV Lead, FirstNet

Presenter: Chad Tucker, FirstNet Principal Consultant, AT&T

Track: General

Location: Rooms 6-7

In July 2017, Governor Matt Bevin made the decision for Kentucky to “opt in” to FirstNet and bring advanced technologies that will help first responders save lives and protect communities. This partnership will have an enormous impact on the ability of first responders to communicate using modern technology that is critical to serving and protecting communities across the commonwealth. This unique partnership will deliver the next-generation tools that public safety needs to better respond to emergencies, natural disasters and during special events. This session will detail the partnership and what it means for Kentucky’s first responders.

1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

Utilizing Body Language to Communicate

Presenter: Karen Milliner, Owner/Founder, Professional Networking Services, LLC

Track: HR/Clerks

Location: Room 5

Did you know that research has shown that those who can effectively read and interpret nonverbal communication or body language will enjoy greater success in life? This course will provide insight into how to master your own body language and accurately perceive the nonverbal clues of others. Come and learn techniques of “reading” body language cues to understand if your message is being effectively communicated.

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Small Cell Tower Regulation

Presenter: Linda Ain, Owner/Attorney, Law Firm of Linda K. Ain

Track: CLE

Location: Room 3

A “battle” of sorts is raging between municipalities and large phone service providers over the regulations that are applicable to small cell towers. Recently, Verizon called the area a “municipal minefield.” This session will provide an overview of the area of small cell tower regulation and provide best-practice tips for cities that seek to regulate these devices.

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The Digital Threat: Cybersecurity Risks & Solutions

Presenter: Dave Mims, President/CEO, Sophicity

Presenter: Suzanne Reed, Director of Underwriting, KLCIS

Track: Clerks/Finance

Location: Room 4

Kentucky recently became the 47th state to enact a data breach notification law. Although the statute exempts most government agencies, this does not relieve those agencies from other requirements for securing personal data. This course will discuss the evolution of cybersecurity issues, how those issues impact local governments and steps that can be taken to mitigate cybersecurity risks.

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Multi-Generational Strategic Planning

Presenter: Tad Long, KLC Community Development Manager

Presenter: Bobbie Bryant, KLC Community Development Advisor

Presenter: Jared Gray, KLC Community Development Associate

Track: Community Development

Location: Room 5

When thinking about the future of your city, is your vision big enough? Broad enough? Inclusive enough? Don’t just plan for the generation that “is.” Also plan for the generations to come. Let some of our mayors share with you how they’re doing it.

WEDNESDAY - OCTOBER 4

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

A Community Response to the Heroin Crisis: The Angel Program

Presenter: Sergeant Brittney Garret, Jeffersontown Police Department

Presenter: Kelly Pompilo, Police Social Worker, Alexandria Police Department

Track: General

Location: Rooms 1-2

Jeffersontown was the first Kentucky city to implement the Angel Program model first utilized in Gloucester, Massachusetts. Under this program any person who comes to the police department and requests help with his or her addiction will immediately be screened into the Angel Program for placement in a local treatment facility and local volunteers, or “Angels,” support the participants during the program. Similarly, Alexandria recently hired a police social worker to help reduce repeat calls that involve the same families by connecting the families to community resources. Come and learn how two Kentucky communities are implementing these innovative models to help reduce the impact of the opiate epidemic in their communities.

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

How to Create a City of Ethics

Presenter: Andrea Shindlebower Main, KLC Personnel Services Specialist

Track: HR/Clerks

Location: Rooms 6-7

Promoting an ethical culture is a key leadership responsibility. This course will offer practical strategies and tools to help your city build a more ethical workplace and culture. The speaker will cover the key components of the 2014 model city ethics ordinance including conflicts of interest, gifts, use of equipment, financial disclosures, nepotism and enforcement in an interactive, educational and motivational setting. Using real-world examples, participants will learn how to build ethical habits to deal with the difficult situations when they arise. In addition, there will be information on how your city can become a “Certified City of Ethics.”

Speaker: Rusty Justice, Co-Founder/Owner, Bit Source
Location: Ballroom

As our culture and economy change, both public and private sector leaders must be willing to innovate in order to survive and remain relevant. Appalachia has been exporting coal for a long time, but one company in Pike County is asking whether or not eastern Kentucky can make a technology transition to export code instead of coal. Bit Source is a new company that is seeking to redefine how laid-off coal miners are seen by the world and by themselves. This session will explore the story behind this technology start-up in the middle of coal country and offer insight into how changing your mindset can change your community.

THURSDAY - OCTOBER 5

Cities & Civil Unrest: First Amendment Protest Rights

Presenter: Morgain Sprague, KLC Managing Counsel for Member Legal Services

Track: CLE

Location: Room 6

Do you know what your city can and cannot regulate when it comes to civil protest? The First Amendment prohibits restrictions based on the content of speech. However, this does not mean that the Constitution completely protects all types of free speech activity in every circumstance. This session will provide an overview of the best strategies to help keep your community safe and make sure your policies and law enforcement are in compliance with the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

2:45 p.m. – 4:15 p.m.

Economic Loss Rule & Product Warranties

Presenter: Spencer Noe, Attorney

Presenter: Donald Wakefield, Attorney

Track: Clerks

Location: Room 3

Cities enter into a variety of contracts and procurement relationships. Do you know your rights under those contracts and the warranties for the products that your municipality has purchased? This course will offer an explanation of the economic loss rule and provide insight into the product warranty claims your city might experience in the future.

2:45 p.m. – 4:15 p.m.

Walk'n, Talk'n, Look'n and Listen'n, or Things That Most of Us Don't Do Well

Presenter: Dennis Dycus

Track: Finance

Sponsored by KYGFOA

Location: Room 5

Financial officers and auditors often ask employees questions and record answers when preparing records or if concerns about fraud emerge. However, if a problem exists within an organization, who is the most likely to know about it? The employees! You may talk to individuals, but do you actually listen and understand what they say. Too often we don't. Look around. By observation, confirm (or disprove) some of management's assertions (after all, they will tell you what you want to hear)! But then again, you must determine what you see is real, because too often, it is not! This session illustrates the many things a financial officer can accomplish by simply, "Walk'n, Talk'n, Look'n, and Listen'n," not to mention saving a great amount of time as a result of gathering information during the process.
