KLC Annual Awards

klc.org

The Kentucky League of Cities (KLC) award for Elected City Official of the Year recognizes outstanding leaders for their innovation and excellence in local governance and celebrates their achievements.

ELIGIBILITY

- ◆ Nominees must be a current elected city official from a KLC member city.
- ◆ Nominees must be serving in their capacity on the date of nomination.
- ◆ All nominations must be submitted by June 30, 2017.

NEW! RECOGNITION FOR THE WINNER

- ◆ KLC executive staff will present the award in the winner's home city during a city council/commission meeting or another event. KLC will work with the winner and city staff to determine the best venue. This will allow the winner's family, friends and community, as well as local media, to participate in the award presentation.
- ◆ A special video will recognize the winner on social media, online and during the 2017 KLC Conference & Expo, October 3-6, in Covington. The video will be used in KLC social media and may be used locally by the winner in his or her city.
- ◆ The winner will be invited to be recognized at the KLC Conference & Expo but does not have to attend.
- ◆ A donation will be made by KLC to a Kentucky city program/project or qualified charity of the winner's choice in his or her honor in the amount of $1,000.
- ◆ The winner will be recognized in KLC publications and by local and statewide media (including customized releases for local media).

JUDGING

Nominations will be judged on the following criteria:

- ◆ The nominee is a role model/example of exceptional public service.
- ◆ The nominee's accomplishments and approach to local government have made his or her city a better place to live.
- ◆ The nominee has the ability to lead and inspire and be resourceful, creative and inclusive.
