

LLRMI WEBINAR TRAINING

LEGAL UPDATE
US SUPREME COURT DECISIONS
2017-2018
IMPACT ON POLICIES AND OPERATIONS

ONE HOUR LIVE, ONLINE TRAINING EVENT
AUGUST 14, 2018, 11 AM - 12 PM EASTERN
JACK RYAN, CO-DIRECTOR, LLRMI

Presenter:
JACK RYAN

Attorney
Co-Director, LLRMI

Date: August 14, 2018
Time: 11 AM-12 PM Eastern
Cost: $99

Legal Update
US Supreme Court Decisions 2017-2018
Impact on Policies and Operations

- Privacy Issues Related to Cellular Phone Records
- Arrest with Probable Cause can Still Violate the Arrestees First Amendments Rights
- The Automobile Exception Does Not Permit the Warrantless Entry of a Home or it's Curtilage in Order to Search a Vehicle Therein
- Possessor of a Rental Car has Right to Privacy Even When Not on Rental Agreement
- US Supreme Court Grants Summary Judgement and Qualified Immunity to D.C. Officers in False Arrest
- US Supreme Court Grants Qualified Immunity in case of Woman with Mental Impairment Shot by Officer
- Understanding Exculpatory Evidence and How it May Impact Convictions: US Supreme Court Provides Further Explanation of Brady v Maryland
- US Supreme Court Rejects 9th Circuit Provocation Theory in Deadly Force Confrontation

REGISTER

PLEASE NOTE: Your registration for our online webinar training includes the live session as well as 30 days of access to the recorded version, unless specifically noted otherwise in the webinar description.

Group Viewing Encouraged: As few as just one attendee or a training room full; multiple attendees can view the webinar from one single location and each attendee can receive a certificate.

QUESTIONS? Call us at (317) 386-8325