

KENTUCKY LEAGUE OF CITIES

Position Title: Web Application Developer/Database Analyst

Reports to: Director of Information Technology

Classification: Exempt

Position Summary: Responsible for developing, testing, implementing, and maintaining web-based application systems and websites.

Work is performed under the general supervision of the Director of Information Technology. This is sedentary to light work that requires limited physical effort; position requires visual acuity for preparing, reviewing, checking and maintaining written and computer files and records; requires hearing sufficient to accurately perceive information at normal spoken word levels, the ability to express or exchange ideas by means of the spoken word and manual dexterity to operate standard office, data entry and word processing equipment.

- Designs, develops, and maintains custom database driven web application systems, including design and development of relational databases, user interfaces, and reports.
- Designs, develops, and maintains public facing websites, Intranet, and related content management systems.
- Updates, modifies, and supports web-based registration and tracking systems as needed for recurring KLC events.
- Creates custom reports including writing complex database queries.
- May be required to perform limited database administration tasks.
- Ensures security and integrity of company databases and websites.
- Trains end users on use of systems as needed.
- Works with KLC membership as necessary to facilitate access to online information pertinent to their respective organizations.
- Provides expertise and recommendations regarding new or proposed web initiatives.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Knowledge of web programming languages and concepts such as VBScript, HTML, CSS, Javascript, jQuery, ASP (Classic and/or .NET), SQL, etc. Understanding of relational databases.

Education and Experience: Any combination of education and experience equivalent to graduation from an accredited college or university with major coursework in an IT-related field with at least three years of web development and relational database experience.

Special Requirements: Possession of an appropriate driver's license valid in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.