Working Together to Grow Kentucky

The Kentucky League of Cities is proud to partner with the Kentucky Association for Economic Development to provide city leaders with the tools, innovation, and collaboration needed to enhance economic development.

Cities are the economic engines of Kentucky, and KLC is committed to ensuring our municipalities develop thriving communities.

Talk to the Kentucky League of Cities about economic development opportunities in cities across the commonwealth.

The Kentucky League of Cities is a member organization representing more than 380 cities.
